

WHAT'S IN YOUR VAPE?

Nicotine – a highly addictive substance that negatively affects adolescent brain development

Propylene glycol – food additive; also used in antifreeze, paint thinner, and fog machines

Carcinogens – chemicals known to cause cancer, including acetaldehyde and formaldehyde

Acrolein – a herbicide primarily used to kill weeds, can cause irreversible lung damage

Diacetyl – a chemical linked to a lung disease called bronchiolitis obliterans aka "popcorn lung"

Diethylene glycol – a toxic chemical used in antifreeze that is linked to lung disease

Heavy metals such as nickel, chromium, tin, lead and sometimes arsenic

Cadmium – a toxic metal found in cigarettes that causes breathing problems and disease

Benzene – a volatile organic compound (VOC) found in car exhaust

Ultrafine particles that can be harmful to the lungs and cardiovascular system

